The Cincinnati Enquirer discards the story that Jack Glasscock, the famous shortstop, is 30 years old.

A NUMBER of tenement houses for workmen at the New Standard mill, over the river, were destroyed by fire yesterday.

The Riverside leathers are only working four hours to the turn, so that they may not have it too hard at the start.

The ladies of Fourth street church are getting up a magnificent reception to be given to the Rev. Dr. Smith, who will visit here next week.

A MODEL crossing is being laid on Virginia street across the alley between South Penn and South Broadway. It is of solid stone and will be completed in a few days.

A FORMAL call will leave the B. & O. depot at 10 A. M. sharp to-day for the sale of the McCoy property, near Mt. De Chantel, and return to the city immediately after the sale.

HANCOCK paper has been displayed by Robert C. Crane, who held the boards at the Opera House next Monday and Tuesday evenings in "The Golden Rule" and "The Comedy of Errors."

A MAN named Undergrad was found at Benwood yesterday, lying on a wheelbarrow, dead. "Engine" Pease impounded a jury and held an inquest, the verdict being that death resulted from heart disease.

Persons of foreign birth desiring to be naturalized, and unable to attend Court in the day time, will have an opportunity this evening, as Judge Boyd will hold a night session of his Court expressly for that purpose.

The famous damage suit of Wm. Armstrong, of West Court House, ex. Michael Smith, of this city, of late, has been adjourned to-day morning, and at a late hour last night they reported a verdict in favor of the defendants.

The Supreme Court of Appeals met yesterday in session for the announcement of decisions. In the case of Smith, Administrator ex. Yoke, et al. from Lewis county, an appeal and supersedeas was allowed; bond $1,000.

In the case of Smith, Administrator ex. Yoke, et al. from Jackson county, a writ of error was allowed; bond $1,000. The Court adjourned till Saturday at 10 A. M.

A VERY elegant and pleasant affair took place last evening at Botts' Hotel on the South Side, it being the marriage of Mr. E. J. Duffy, a well known Sixth ward Democratic politician and a good fellow, to Miss Kate Miller, a sister daughter of Mr. George Miller. After the ceremony congratulations poured in, and the evening was given up to wit and jollity. The young couple start out in life followed by the best wishes of their friends.

The following deed was admitted to record yesterday by Clerk Hook: Deed made September 2nd, 1892, by James H. Miller, of Hancock, to the City of Wheeling, of all that certain lot of land, situate in the City of Wheeling, containing one acre and one-half, more or less, being a portion of the land of the late John Miller, deceased, and the said lot of land is now being used for a public square.

Extremely afternoon we look to see an immense crowd in attendance at the Fair Grounds. The event set for the afternoon is the grand tournament that is being so ably managed by some of our best citizens, and which there are twenty entries. The judges and marshals are prominent gentlemen, and the addresses will be delivered by well known speakers. The program is a very attractive one, and the music and taken altogether the afternoon will be a very enjoyable one.

Dr. J. E. Smith and Dr. A. P. Gasmire, accompanied by the former's wife and the latter's sister, yesterday were out to Rosey's Rock to see the famous "Rock" and to see the people audibly to see two gentlemen whose dress and appearance showed them to be professional men, in search of game, but when they returned to the city, they were accompanied by a dozen squirrels, the natives, who had not seen a squirrel for a month, ceased sniffling and "wanted to know."

FRANK BISH, a well known variety artist, who has been touring the country for some time, is now in the city. He is a very popular man, and his performances are well received. He is now in the city, and his performances are well received.

The things at the Standard base ball club were yesterday very much improved, and the boys and their friends are justly indignant at the supposed wit of the Standard club. The Standard club is now in the city, and their performances are well received.

A GOOD deal of comment was heard yesterday over a very significant "mistake" in the program of Gen. Goff's speech the night before. The General said that Mr. Cramer had insinuated in his speech at Washington Hall on Saturday night that the Democracy of Ohio county can be bought, but that he did not believe it. The speaker represented Gen. Goff as quoting Mr. Cramer to the effect that the Democracy can be bought, a statement which he did not make. The difference in the program and the misrepresentation is a characteristic one.

DAILY BRICKLAW, South Wheeling's organ, in reply to what purported to come from Fatty Weisger in yesterday's Intelligencer, says that he will not accept a $1000 a side, first because he has heretofore received $1,000, and secondly, because he does not think that such an amount would compensate him for the loss of his reputation. Weisger's friends want to cover $1,000, they can be accommodated. The former Bricklaw receives a definite answer the better.

A COURT day of complaint is heard of the depositions of small boys and other boys at the North End. Several petty highway robberies have been perpetrated, in one case a lady having been particularly snatched from her car North Main street on early hour of the evening. On Tuesday two boys about sixteen years old entered the yard of M. L. Ott and stole from a large box of laundry articles worth about $100. The boys were then taken through a neighbor's cellar. The high bluff upon the P. & W. & Ky. railroad track affords a convenient and easy means of escape for such petty thieves. This time, however, it did not serve very well, as the police captured the two young criminals yesterday, and they now repose in jail. Their names are Charles Stied and Charles Bennett.

An interesting case is pending in Judge Boyd's court of the Circuit Court, being the application by Fred J. Norton, of the firm of Buchanan & Norton, lessees of the Melrose house, for a decree of foreclosure of a mortgage and appointing a receiver to take charge of the business affairs of the firm. It appears that some time in August, when the application was made, an injunction was granted restraining the Exchange Bank from paying out any of the firm's funds on the order of Mr. Melrose. By the order of the court, the mortgage was made out in this way when the partnership funds were all on deposit in the Commercial Bank, and shortly after Mr. Melrose's check on the Commercial Bank for $1,000 was cashed, and the balance of the partnership funds was transferred to the Commercial Bank.

The appointment of a receiver has been partially argued, but is still pending. The argument will be continued to-day.

Tray feeding of lambs and other animals is now in progress, removed by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

A COMMON CREATURE.

Whose Existence has a Power of Believing in the Mind of the Common People.

A masher is an animal resembling a human being in appearance, but differing from a rational creature in the weight and consistency of a brain. A masher has no nose and never acquires any knowledge. It is of no use and scientists have failed to discover the reason for its creation.

The masher generally carries a cane nearly as long as his ears, but infinitesimally smaller in external area than his cheek. He also smokes cigarettes and wears a "fah-de-dah" hat.

Any who describe that which every person sees on the street any evening? Why dilate on peculiarities observable at first sight? Any one who has strolled along some of our public places in a Saturday morning when it is pleasant, has seen scores of mashers, complete outfits of ears, cheek, canes and cigarettes. The performances of these mashers on the street are of no public place interest, but the dignified and noble bearing that they wear when our forefathers would have denominated "dressed folks." One of these mashers was watched for an hour the other evening on the street, and the following program carried out presumably for amusement:
